

An industry leader since 1912

*"Meet the Best in the Industry
- Richards-Wilcox!"*

Protégé... Traditional Richards-Wilcox Quality

Our fine tradition of Quality and Service continues with the Protégé. Look closely and you'll see rich woodgrain texture, prefinished steel on both sides, technologically advanced polyurethane insulating core and quality hardware components make the Protégé a great choice for your home.

Installed and serviced by the best trained dealers in the industry, and backed by our Lifetimer warranty, any expert will tell you that this represents fantastic value.

Richards-Wilcox is one of the oldest door manufacturers in Canada. Our dealers are held to the highest standards in service installation and support.

This is the Richards-Wilcox way of doing business. It's why we've been here since 1912. And, it's why we'll be here for the next century.
